

Gifts for Easter.

It is decidedly appropriate and in good taste to remember one's friends at Easter time--one of the most joyous festivals of the entire year in fact the custom has become almost universal.

We have so many pretty little gifts that would be very appropriate for Easter gifts.

Rosaries, Scapular Locketts, Crosses, Neck Chains, Bracelets, Rings, A pretty Vase for Easter Flowers.

We also have a good assortment of Catholic Prayer Books. Let us show you.

Forges Three Cheques

Now Awaiting Trail

A man giving his name as Perry Wilson was arrested Wednesday evening by Night Officer Jones on complaint of Charles Whelan for passing some bogus cheques. The man has been working in Lock's barber shop near the First National bank for a few weeks and is a comparative stranger in the city. After his arrest it was discovered that he had passed cheques to H. Scoonover and G. S. Huffman and had obtained money on them.

He first appeared at Whelan's saloon in the afternoon with a cheque for $10 and got the money. Later in the afternoon he came back and tried again to get money on a cheque but was refused. He then went to Huffman's cigar store and passed a cheque for $22 and just before closing time he went to the Scoonover clothing store where he got $22.50. In the meantime Whelan had discovered that the paper was worthless and sent Officers Jones and Freiberg on the man's trail. He was arrested and taken to jail where he spent the night. He was very much intoxicated when arrested and yesterday spent the day in calling for more whiskey and in weeping. A search of his clothing revealed the fact that he had less than fifteen dollars.

The names of Potter and Wilson were used on the cheques and all three of them were drawn on the First National bank. He attempted to pass one cheque at The Star clothing house but was refused by Mr. VanDerhoof. A warrant was taken out for him yesterday afternoon and he will be given preliminary hearing some time today. The men announce that they will push the case to the limit.

Wilson is the same man who was arrested a few days ago on the charge of misconduct in connection with Mrs. Ruby Handley.

Perrigo as a Campaigner.

The people take off their hats to E. B. Perrigo, who managed the campaign for the electric company. Coming here from Omaha a perfect stranger, Mr. Perrigo found that eighty per cent of the people were opposed to the franchise. However, he was not daunted by this condition, and began his work with energy but in a courteous and gentlemanly manner. By his conduct he won the good-will and confidence of all and enemies of none, and the final result was the success of the franchise. Mr. Perrigo leaves town with the friendship of not only those who voted for the franchise but of many who opposed it, the latter recognizing that he made a fair and manly fight.

Buy Another Farm.

Julius Pizer made an additional investment in Platte valley land this week when he purchased what is more familiarly known as the Paxton & Hershey home place one mile north of Hershey. It consists of 160 acres with two sets of buildings, and is considered one of the best farms in the valley. Mr. Pizer made the purchase of Dr. Baird of Omaha, and the present tenants are Japs. It is Mr. Pizer's intention to put practically the entire tract in alfalfa.

A merry afternoon was spent by the members of the Literary Department of the Twentieth Century club, Wednesday, when they were the guests of Mrs. Ira Miltonberger, at her home on North Locust street. The party was complimentary to Mrs. C. A. Lowell of Omaha, who was a charter member of this club. The afternoon was pleasantly passed in Kensington work varied by musical selections by Mesdames DeFord, Zenthey and Lowell and readings by Mrs. E. H. Flowers. Mrs. Lowell was presented with a North Platte souvenir spoon in memory of her association with this club. Mrs. Miltonberger served a well appointed three course luncheon, place cards bearing personal Easter limericks. XX

Easter Display of Printzess Garments.

Prepare for Easter.

An opportunity for you to become acquainted with the style of spring. Nature has arrayed herself in all the finery of spring and our own thoughts are turning in the same direction. The very air breathes a spirit that makes you think of lighter and prettier apparel for yourself to take the place of the heavier garments that have served so well through the winter.

To Such a Showing

you are invited that you may know the styles and materials that are here to meet your spring time needs. Whether you buy now or whether you look to buy at a later date, we want you to accept our invitation to visit us.

But styles are nifty---all first-class materials used. Prices very modest, and all alterations done free.
